"THE COTTON GIN QUESTION!"

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY!

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSAL
COTTON GIN AND CONDENSER, Invented and Patented by HORACE L. EMERY,
And Manufactured by
HORACE L. EMERY & SON,
AT THEIR
Albany Agricultural Works, Albany, New York.

The public are hereby notified that in order to insure to them the Genuine Machines above mentioned, the Patentees and Manufacturers, (successors of Emery Brothers) have appointed Dunn, Plummer & Co., Petersburg, Va., as their Sole Agents, for this city and vicinity, for their sale at manufacturer's prices, with Transportation only added. As other parties are making Cotton Gins without the improvements which have given these Machines their superiority and unexampled success, and are offering them to the public with nearly the same representations, this notice is to prevent the imposition and disappointments of purchasers who desire the well established and approved Machines manufactured only by us.

THE UNIVERSAL COTTON GIN AND CONDENSER of Horace L. Emery's Patent, may be readily distinguished by their having the PICKER ROLL SUPPORTER suspended midway in the hopper over the saws, for supporting and moving the COTTON ROLL and preventing all possibility of choking or bridging of Cotton in the hopper from any cause. Also their air supply openings to an air chamber over the Brush Cylinder, and the words "HORACE L. EMERY'S PATENT" and Albany Agricultural Works, in raised and stenciled letters upon different parts of the Machine.

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolina, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has owned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to war[illegible] a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Barbain, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises consist in about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E Barbain, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

The Soldiers' Convention.

We think that our friends of the Wilmington Dispatch are at fault in their hesitancy to endorse the proposed Convention of the soldiers of the two lately hostile armies, to be held at Cincinnati, or some other point, in September. In our judgment, such a movement will be grandly and effectively co-operative with that great National Convention, in Philadelphia, which has just adjourned.

It is essential to the preservation of our liberties, to the maintenance of a Constitutional Union, to the cause of law and order, that the Radical malignants be driven from power.—That is universally conceded by all patriotic men, North and South. It is equally essential to the accomplishment of the latter result, that all these patriotic men should combine, should ignore, and, as far as possible, consent to forget, past animosities and present differences, and should bury out of sight the lingering prejudices that survive the conflict of arms. This must also be conceded. Such a course, so far as we of the South are concerned, is by no means inconsistent with our convictions as to the necessity of our struggle, our deep-felt sense of gratitude to the living heroes who imperilled their lives in our defence, or a pious veneration for the memories of those who died for the cause.

So far as our observation has extended, the soldiers of the two armies are less vindictive and less disposed to keep alive the bitter feelings engendered by the war than any other class. Of course there are exceptions to this general rule. There are a few men, like B. F. Butler, who still clamor for blood and proscription, but such men never were soldiers, in the true and generous sense of that term, and are a disgrace to the uniform they wore. Men who suffered similar hardships, and encountered common privations, and who, when wounded or captive, rarely, in vain, appealed even to their soldier-enemies, for assistance and relief, are not half so apt to cherish resentful memories of the war as those who know nothing of such associations. Those who have experienced

"The stern joy which warriors feel
In meeting foemen worthy of their steel,"

are never reluctant to accord to each other the full meed of praise and admiration to which their valor, constancy, endurance, and honest devotion to duty, are entitled.

The soldiers of the two armies, who may meet in friendly council, in September, are not expected to pass political resolutions or discuss theories of government. As we understand it, ignoring all party creeds, abstract political dogmas, and sectional antagonisms, all who are so disposed are to assemble for the simple, patriotic purpose of recording their determination to sustain the President in his efforts to rescue the Union of our fathers, and the Constitution as it is, from the fell grasp of the crazy plotters against the existence and integrity of both.

The grand mass Convention of Federal soldiers, representing every county in the State, recently held in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, is significant, we hope and believe, of the general sentiment among their comrades throughout the North. They volunteered to save the Union. The war over, the great purpose for which they fought is hindered, delayed and sought to be prevented. Their work is being undone by Radical disorganizers—by men who gorged themselves with ill-gotten plunder while the conflict raged, and whose sole hope of further peculation lies in the prolongation of strife and discord. Shall we not co-operate with them in their efforts to put down the men who have destroyed and deluded them, while they are grinding us into the very dust of humiliation and oppression?

We are, then, decidedly in favor of the proposed Convention. It impresses us as a grand conception, and we believe that, if consummated, it will be productive of the most cheering results. When those who fought against each other, who bore the brunt of the war in their own persons, consent to shake hands around the altar of Constitutional Union, that will be a most daring and insolent, and doomed, faction, that dare lift its hands to tear it down!

THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.—A correspondent of the Richmond Times, writing from Philadelphia, says that "Gov. Graham, of North Carolina, Governor Orr, of South Carolina, Colonel Flournoy, of Virginia, John A. Gilmer, of North Carolina, B. F. Perry, of South Carolina, and others, appear to command great influence and respect, and are much sought after."

The same correspondent adds:

"One fact has been abundantly demonstrated to-day: The Convention is one of the greatest successes the country ever witnessed. The Radicals here are struck dumb with the magnificent proportions of such a popular demonstration, when not even the exciting cause of a nomination exists to produce enthusiasm or call out numbers. The proposition for a National Soldiers' Convention will undoubtedly become a fixed fact. There are present a number of the officers of both armies, who have won imperishable reputations for gallantry, who unite in approving this movement.

The enthusiasm begotten by the Convention in this Radical-ridden city has extended beyond the wigwam. Meetings have been improvised in various parts of the city, to avail themselves of the aid of the speakers in attendance upon the Convention. The quiet city of Philadelphia is made alive with excitement."

THE Salem Press announces a fine rain in that section, which will greatly benefit the late crop of corn.

Poor of the South.

The late report of Gens. Steedman and Fullerton, after a full conviction that the public funds have been wasted and appropriated to improper and unlawful uses by the Bureau, led them to suggest that the system of giving rations to the poor, both white and black, should be abandoned. A telegraphic despatch, received to-day, says that Gen. Howard will, in a few days, issue an order, putting a stop to the issue of rations, turning over the poor blacks and whites to the guardianship of the local authorities.

The injustice and cruelty, on the part of the government, of abandoning the aged, infirm and disabled negroes and their children, whom it has forcibly freed, thereby cancelling the obligation of their former owners to provide for them, is too manifest, to require an argument. This would be so, if the Southern whites had been left by the war in the best condition. But when it is well known that the South has been stripped of every means of support, except the lands, and when it is manifest that the condition of the bread crops of the South bodes almost a famine in many sections, no one, it seems to us, could approve such a proceeding as Gen. Howard proposes. To abandon the poor and infirm, and disabled and helpless blacks altogether, because the Bureau has worked badly and because the Bureau agents have shown themselves unqualified to manage economically the matter, is what common justice and humanity cannot sanction. As to the local authorities providing for the blacks, it is a moral impossibility. But if the government would appoint native citizens of the South, in each County, to look after them, the whole case might be met humanely and economically.

The Cotton and Corn Crop.

We have taken some pains to enquire into the prospects of the present crop of corn and cotton in this State, and have arrived at the following conclusions:

The cotton crop in North Carolina, judging from the quantity seeded and from the general condition of the crop, will be larger and of a better quality than in 1860, unless the picking season should be too wet; an event which we somewhat anticipate, because of the very small amount of rain which has fallen in the State since April. For the most part, the season has been most admirable for cotton; it never was generally in better condition, and the bolling is good. As usual, when any one article of market produce is relied upon for money, the cotton crop has engrossed the attention, to the neglect of grain. In the cotton region of the State, it is doubtful if enough corn has been raised to meet the wants of that region.

We are forced to believe that the corn crop, from the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad West to the Tennessee line, will scarcely exceed the third of a crop. From many portions of the State, we learn that the crop has been literally burned up by the drought and heat. Here and there on the low grounds of water courses, there is an exception; but the crop generally is seriously cut off. In Hyde and other Eastern Counties the corn crop, we judge, will be very large.

With this view, if it be correct, it is all important that the corn and wheat in the State should be economically used. All who will be compelled to buy, should make arrangements to purchase early or unite with others in importing corn from the Northwestern States. This can be done cheaper than buying at home.

[Special dispatch to the Evening Post.]

A Forthcoming Proclamation---Restoration of the Writ of Habeas Corpus---End of the Military Occupation of the South.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—Secretary Seward returned here this morning from Auburn, and resumed the charge of his department.

He had an interview with the President, and it is reported that a proclamation will be immediately issued declaring the re-establishment of the writ of habeas corpus over all the territory of the United States, and a practical termination of the military occupation of the States lately in insurrection.

It is understood that this proclamation has been delayed on account of the absence of Mr. Seward.

We sincerely trust that the above rumor is correct. President Johnson owes it to himself and to the country, to vindicate the Constitution, by the speedy removal of all obstructions to the writ of habeas corpus at all points and on every foot of soil, where the supremacy of the Constitution is acknowledged.

It is a most fit time, too, for the removal of all disabilities from all citizens, charged with political offences. Mr. Davis, who is literally dying at Fortress Monroe, should be forthwith released, at least on bail or parole. Whatever may be thought, by any one, of the nature of his offence, no man of honor, no true American citizen, can be willing that the escutcheon of the government should be stained forever with the blood of any citizen, and especially one occupying his position,—murdered by inches by confinement, after he has for months plead for and demanded a trial.

A general, universal amnesty, and a reasonable, consistent and just course towards the South, on the part of the Congress and of the party in power, are all that is needed for the restoration of harmony and good will.

The Direct Tax.

A friend writing us says:

"We really do not know how the law with regard to the collection of the direct tax of 1861 stands. Will you be so kind as to favor me with a statement of how the matter stands?"

We presume that our correspondent alludes to the land tax imposed by the Congress. If so, we are glad to say that we published, on Thursday, an official statement, from the U. S. Treasury Department, informing collectors, &c., that the collection of "...d tax in North Carolina has been suspended by order of the Secretary of the Treasury. This will be good news to our land owners and planters. The U. S. excise and income tax, however, is being collected, which, of itself, is sufficient to break the camel's back, in our present poor condition.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Details of Second Day's Proceedings.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.

The National Union Convention re-assembled at noon to-day. Long before the hour of assembling the wigwam was crowded with delegates and spectators, including a large number of ladies, who were entertained with national airs by the band of music.

Major General Dix, the temporary President, called the Convention to order, and an impressive prayer was made by the Rev. Mr. Holsinger.

THE NOMINATION OF OFFICERS.

After the prayer General Dix announced that the first business before the Convention was the report of the committee appointed yesterday.

Mr. Blair, of Maryland, then arose and said: I am instructed by the committee on organization to report the following names as the officers of the Convention:

For President—Hon. J. R. Doolittle, of Wisconsin.

Vice Presidents—Maine, Leonard Woods, LL. D; New Hampshire, Daniel Marcy; Vermont, Myron Clark; Massachusetts, Hon. R. B. Hall; Rhode Island, Alfred Anthony; Connecticut, Hon. O. F. Miller; New Mexico, ——; Utah, ——; Colorado, Hon. B. F. Hall; Washington Territory, Elwood Evans.

Secretaries—Maine, James Mann; New Hampshire, E. G. Cutler; Vermont, G. H. Simmons; Massachusetts, Charles Wright; Rhode Island, J. H. Parsons; Connecticut, John A. Hoovey; New York, E. O. Perrine; New Jersey, Colonel Thomas S. Allison; Pennsylvania, H. A. Weaver; Delaware, J. T. Throp; Maryland, Dr. W. W. Watkins; Virginia, H. S. Walker; North Carolina, S. F. Patterson; South Carolina, T. Y. Simmons; Georgia, J. A. Christie; Florida, Judge B. D. Wright; Mississippi, A. G. Mover; Louisiana, A. W. Walker; Arkansas, E. C. Boudinott; Texas, J. M. Daniel; Tennessee, John Lellyet; Alabama, C. S. G. Doster; Kentucky, M. H. Owsley; Ohio, E. D. Eshelman; Indiana, Col. C. C. Watson; Illinois, John McGinnis, jr.; Michigan, General J. G. Parkhurst; Minnesota, Col. Richard Price; Wisconsin, G. C. Goutty; Iowa, L. D. Parker; Kansas, W. A. Tipton; California, J. Temple; Nevada, Colonel J. Williams; Oregon, A. D. Firk; District of Columbia, James O'Bierne; Dacotah, J. F. Brammell; Nebraska, Maj. L. Lowry; Washington, Charles F. Egan.

General Dix, at the conclusion of the reading of the above report, introduced Mr. Doolittle, who was received with great applause, and on taking the chair spoke as follows:

SPEECH OF THE PRESIDENT.

Gentlemen of the Convention and citizens of the United States: (Applause) For the distinguished honor of being called upon to preside over the deliberations of this Convention I sincerely thank you. I could have wished that its responsibilities had fallen upon another. But relying upon that courtesy and generous confidence which has called me to the chair, I enter at once upon its duties with an earnest desire for the success of the great cause in which we are now engaged. Among the great events of our own day this Convention, in my opinion, will be one of the greatest; for peace hath victories not less renowned than war. (Applause.) And this Convention is one of her victories,—may I not say a crowning victory? (Applause.)

For the first time in six years a national Convention, representing all the States, is now assembled. Six long, weary years. As I look back, oh! what an interval of blood and agony and fears. During that period we have been engaged in the most gigantic civil war the world has ever seen. Wasting our resources, drenching a thousand battle-fields in fraternal blood, and carrying to fraternal graves our fathers, our sons, and our brothers, by hundreds of thousands. But thanks be to Almighty God the war is over. (Applause.) Peace, blessed peace has come. The assurances which we here witness tell us that peace has come, and come to stay. (Applause.) Oh, my fellow-citizens, if the whole people of the United States could, this moment, look in upon this Convention; if they could see what we now witness, the North and the South, the East and the West joining together in fraternal association as friends and fellow-citizens, our work would be already done. (Applause.) If they could see, as we saw Massachusetts and South Carolina (applause)—by their full delegations coming arm-in-arm into this great Convention—(applause)—if they could have seen this body, greater in numbers and in weight of character and brain than ever has assembled on this continent, under one roof, melting to tears of joy and gratitude to witness this commingling, there would be no struggle at the polls in the coming election.—(Applause.)

When I remember that it was Massachusetts and South Carolina that, in the Convention which framed the Constitution, voted against the abolition of the slave trade; that it was Massachusetts in 1812, which, through some of her men, taught the doctrines of nullification, which South Carolina re-asserted in 1833, and in the form of secession re-asserted in 1860; when I call to mind that South Carolina fired the first gun in this contest, and that the veins of Massachusetts poured out the first blood in the struggle; (applause) and when I call to mind all these memories, and at the same time ask the people of this country to look in on this Convention and see these two old States of the Union coming here, in fraternal embrace, approaching the common altar of a common country, ready to make common sacrifices for the good of the whole—I say again, could the whole people of the United States witness all this, there would remain no further work for us to perform. (Applause.)

If the people of Massachusetts herself could have witnessed it, not a single member would be returned to Congress from that State, (great applause) until he had given the most sacred assurance that he would do all in his power in Congress to recognize the equality and dignity of all the States under the Constitution, (applause) including the sacred and inalienable right of every State under the Constitution to representation in both houses of Congress. Applause.)

Gentlemen of the Convention, I shall go into no argument on this occasion. (Cries of "Go on.") The distinguished gentleman (General Dix) who preceded me has said all that I would desire to say, much better than I could say it. I endorse, and take great pleasure in fully endorsing, all that he said, sentence by sentence, word by word. (Applause.)

Fellow-citizens, unfortunately, it may be, the whole people of the United States are not here to witness what is transpiring; therefore, the greater work still rests upon us. From this time until the election of the next Congress we should be unremitting in our exertions to see to it that the next Congress, if this shall continue to refuse this sacred right of representation to equal States, that the next Congress shall recognize that right. (Applause.) When this is done, the Union is restored. (Applause.)—And when the Union is restored, we shall be prepared, in my judgment, to enter upon a higher and nobler career among the nations of the earth than has ever yet been occupied by any government upon which the sun of Heaven ever shone. (Applause.) We shall stand in the vanguards of civilization and liberty; we shall lead the way by the light of our example for all the other nations of the earth. (Applause.)

Gentlemen, without detaining you any longer, I shall enter at once upon the duties of the chair.

THE OTHER OFFICERS.

The Vice Presidents and Secretaries of the Convention were then invited to take their seats on the platform. While they were doing so the band played several airs.

REPORT ON CREDENTIALS.

General Steadman, the chairman of the committee on credentials, made a report, stating there were no seats contested except from the States of Maine, Delaware and New York, and of those cases the committee had made the following dispositions:

The delegates elected by a meeting held at Rowland, and headed by Governor Crosby, are entitled to admission as the delegation from Maine. The delegates elected by the meeting held at Dover, on the 26th of July, are entitled to admission as delegates from Delaware, and the persons chosen at Wilmington, on the 2nd of August, are to be admitted to honorary seats in the Convention. The gentlemen attending from the United Service Society of Soldiers and Sailors of New York, and those elected by the New York delegation represented by Mr. Samuel J. Tilden as Chairman, are to be admitted to seats as honorary members.

In consequence of the time that would be occupied in reading the list of delegates its reading was dispensed with, and under the operation of the previous question the report of the committee was agreed to.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS AND ADDRESS.

On motion of Senator Cowan, of Pennsylvania, a committee of two from each State and the Territories was appointed to prepare resolutions and an address.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS.

Mr. Hogan, of Illinois, proposed a recess of an hour or two, but the proposition met with no favor and was not pressed.

Senator Cowan, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee on resolutions, informed the Convention that the committee would not be ready to report finally before to-morrow morning.

After several suggestions and positions, it was decided that the session to-morrow commence at 10 A. M., in order to get through the business as soon as possible.

Mr. Pershing, of Pennsylvania, presented a memorial, prepared by a gentleman in his Congressional district, which was, on his motion, referred to the Committee on resolutions unread.

Mr. Babcock, of Ohio, also presented an address to the people of New England, prepared by the members of the Louisiana, Mississippi and Missouri delegations who were born in New England, which was also referred unread to the Committee on resolutions, and then,

On motion of Mr. Orr, of South Carolina, at quarter past two o'clock, the Convention adjourned until to-morrow, Thursday.

GENERAL NEWS.

Mrs. Elizabeth Young, while temporarily insane, and having her babe in her arms, jumped from a garret window in New York and landed in the street, some forty feet below. The child was uninjured, and the woman will probably recover.

Ex-Governor Hahn, of Louisiana, is in St. Louis, suffering from his wounds. We dare say he will be slow to foment another riot.

Major Heros Von Borcke, who was chief of staff to General J. E. B. Stuart, and contributed an account of his exploits to Blackwood, is now on the staff of Prince Frederick Charles of Prussia.

KENTUCKY ELECTIONS.—The Louisville Courier, of Monday, publishes returns from ninety-five counties, leaving fifteen to hear from. The majority for Duvall thus far is 40,097. The remaining counties will carry the majority to about forty-two thousand. Duvall's majority is equal to Hobson's vote.

M. R. Hardin is elected Judge in the Third Appellate District, by a majority of 8,054 over T. A. Marshall;—another gratifying result.

QUEEN EMMA.—The Queen of the Sandwich Islands is still in Washington, where she was called upon Wednesday by a number of clergymen of the Episcopal Church. The interview lasted an hour, and all departed most agreeably impressed by the graceful vivacity of the Queen, her engaging address and dignified cordiality.

One of the very latest styles of ladies' hats worn is called the "butter-dish." They are a cross between a snapping turtle's shell and a wash-pan, and are "so nice."

Secretary McCulloch notifies the holders of certificates of deposit on temporary loan, other than those of Clearing House purposes, that they will be redeemed, with interest accruing up to August 26, and after that day they will cease to bear interest.

Among the delegates to the Convention will be found forty-five major generals United States Army.

A pedlar was pitched into a well in Arkansas by an incensed husband, and has not since emerged.

Senator Doolittle, in his speech at Madison, Wis., said that Horace Greeley could not be admitted to the Philadelphia Convention under its call, unless it could be made to appear that he had renounced the heresy of secession, which he advocated so boldly in 1860 and 1861.

A Saratoga letter says: There are but two or three beauties. One we had stealthily admired from corners, and behind newspapers, but when, to-day at dinner, she put both elbows on the table, and gnawed her corn from the ear, we wept tears for the betrayal of our hopes, and gave her up.

The arrangements for laying the corner-stone of the Douglas monument at Chicago, on the 6th of September, have been nearly completed. The proposed banquet has been given up, but a reception will be given the President and other distinguished visitors, and a grand musical entertainment will take place at the Opera House.

The Philadelphia Telegraph published hourly editions during the session of the Convention,—being facilitated by telegraphic wires from the Wigwam to the sanctum.

THE OLD NORTH STATE has paid a larger amount of the direct tax than any other Southern State, exceeding Virginia by over $5,000. This speaks well for North Carolina. Poor before the war, the termination of the struggle left her people almost destitute—as impoverished as any of the other Southern States, and yet she surpasses them all in the promptness with which she meets her obligations. As she did during the late war, when she sent more soldiers in the field than any other Southern State.—Wil. Dispatch.

In order to relieve the community from a continuance of the numerous outrages which have been committed by armed bands in the neighborhood of Petersburg, the commandant of the post there has resolved to collect all the United States arms of every description in other than military hands.

THE BUREAU INDISPENSABLE.—General Howard, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, has written a letter to the Hon. Russell Hart, of New York, in which he says "the Bureau is indispensable." To this "noble sentiment" all the assistant commissioners, agents, subagents and hangers on of the Bureau will doubtless say, "Amen."

IMPORTANT SALE
IN WILSON NORTH CAROLINA
THE undersigned, having been duly appointed and empowered by the stockholders of WILSON FEMALE SEMINARY, to make sale of that VALUABLE PROPERTY, including all the buildings, together with about Twelve and a fourth Acres of Land, will offer the same at public auction, on the 14th day of September next.
The Seminary is a large and commodious building, admirably arranged for school purposes, and contains a sufficient number of rooms to accommodate about TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS. The buildings are nearly new, having been erected in 1860, and are of every kind needed in a first class Seminary.
The Seminary is located on the Eastern boundary of the town of Wilson, below the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and on an elevated spot of ground, well shaded, and having excellent wells of water. The proverbial healthiness of the town of Wilson, (it being the highest point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad,) and the morality, intelligence and refinement of its citizens, make it one of the most desirable locations for a first class, Male or Female, Seminary in the State.
Of the 12¼ acres of land a sufficient quantity will be sold for school or other purposes, together with all the buildings formerly used by Seminary, and the balance of the land will be sold in lots, the size of which will be announced on the day of sale.
TERMS OF SALE.—One-fourth cash; on the balance a credit of six months will be given.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—$1,000 reward is offered for the apprehension of the villains, who, on the 9th. inst., murdered Mr. Jno. A. Cutchin, at Whitaker's Station, Edgecombe Co.

The National Publishing Co., Richmond, Va., advertise for agents to canvass for Dabney's "Life and Campaigns of Stonewall Jackson," —the standard biography of the immortal hero.

Col. Jno. F. Sanders, of Smithfield, wishes to employ a private Tutor. With commendable feeling he expresses a preference for any maimed Confederate soldier, who may have the requisite qualifications.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., since their removal, are increasing their attractive stock. See several announcements.

P. F. Pescud, in view of the proximity of cholera, announces valuable specifics for that dread disease.

THE VOTE.—We have now official returns from 59 Counties, in which the vote stands:

For Rejection	15,607
" Ratification	13,327
Majority for Rejection	2,280

CHOLERA! CHOLERA!!—The inaccessibility of this city by the usual modes of travel by which our seaport towns and citizens are visited by epidemics, does not render it positively certain that Raleigh will be wholly exempt from the approach of Cholera. That dreadful malady has reached Richmond, and it is now only a day's travel between that city and this. It is, at least, prudent to suggest the immediate cleaning and liming the city—the removal and burial of fetid, poisonous matter, and a very general resort among our people to proper diet and the use of cholera remedies on the first indications of cholic and diarahœa. Melons and unsound fruit, and indigestible vegetable food, should be dispensed with or more prudently used. "A word to the wise," &c.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, Aug. 17th.—Wm. Thompson, Pittsboro, N. C., A. J. Derby, Philadelphia, L. Taylor, Oxford, N. C., W. C. Means, Concord, N. C., E. H. S. Blogg, Baltimore, Md., S. Wolf, Petersburg, Va., J. C. Raymond, Chester, S. C., G. W. Green, Philadelphia.

HORSE STEALING.—The Salisbury Banner truly says that this crime is now reduced to a science. It mentions several glaring thefts in this line in that vicinity, lately. Hardly a day passes that our columns do not contain advertisements offering rewards for stolen animals.

DRIED FRUIT.—The Press states that E. A. Vogler, Esq., of Salem, has shipped North over 500 barrels dried blackberries, this season,—about 100,000 pounds; and although the apple crop was considered pretty much a failure, he has also shipped, and has on hand, up to this time, over 50,000 pounds dried apples, being over 2000 bushels,—and they are still coming in faster than half a dozen men can pack them.

The dried fruit trade has certainly been a great blessing to the people of Forsyth these hard times.

HOMICIDE.—We regret to learn that a fatal shooting affair occured between Mr. James McKesson and Mr. Bob Tate, of Morganton, N. C., on Tuesday last, which resulting in the killing of Mr. Tate by Mr. McKesson. Mr. Tate was brother-in-law to Mr. McKesson, and it is said that family matters were the cause of the difficulty, which terminated so unfortunately.

THE CROP.—An intelligent gentleman of Cabarrus informs us that the corn crop, in that section, is almost literally burned up. He says his information is, that such also is the case in South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi.

ETHIOPIAN TILTAREENING.—Some queer stories are told of the "B. 9. influences of the Bureau," both in the literary, military, and religious way. A friend writes, from a county not far off, that a Freedman's association has been established in his neighborhood, which partakes, in its operations, of both a military and religious character, they doing a good deal of hyming and exhorting, while they are mustered about under the command of so-called Colonels, Captains, Lieutenants, Sergeants and Corporals. The writer says that "on Sunday week, they were marching in solemn procession through B——s grove, officers to the front, and a goodly batch of female freedmen bringing up the rear, imitating, as well as they might, the martial strut of the heroes in front, when the Freedman in command sung out "close up!"—Instantly every gal hoisted her dress, and stepped out statelier and stronger than ever." C.

READ the astounding developments of profligacy and corruption in the matter of the conspiracy to implicate Mr. Davis in the assassination of President Lincoln. Such villainy is enough to make one blush for our common humanity. No other age, and no other country, have witnessed anything approaching it in moral atrocity.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.
BEAUFORT COUNTY COURT, JUNE TERM, 1866.

John L. Pelly, Adm'r of John S. Young, vs. Heirs of John S. Young. | Petition to sell land to pay debts.

The petition states that John S. Young, a resident of said county, died intestate in 1862, leaving no personal property, but seized of a lot in the town of Washington, said County, and indebted; that his heirs are unknown but supposed to reside out of the State, and out of the United States; and prays that the land may be sold to pay his debts; His heirs are notified to appear at next term of said Court, to be held at Washington, county and State aforesaid, on 3rd. Monday in September next, and answer to said petition, or a decree pro confesso will be given against them.

SHAMEFUL CONDUCT
Of the Judiciary Committee in the Case of Mr. Davis.

FRESH EXPOSURES—HOLT DISGRACED BEYOND REDEMPTION.

[Correspondence of the New York Herald.
WASHINGTON CITY, Aug. 6, 1866.

Prompted by the profound interest the case has excited, I have made diligent efforts to learn more of the conspiracy against Mr. Davis and the underhanded proceedings of the Judiciary Committee.

The conduct of the committee, leaving out of consideration its refusal to allow one of its members access to the records before it, was reprehensible to a degree which no language in my vocabulary is strong enough to properly characterize and denounce. It was ordered by the House to inquire and determine whether there existed probable cause to believe Mr. Davis and others guilty of inciting, concerting or procuring the assassination of President Lincoln; but instead of seeking evidence to enable them to form a conscientious belief on the subject, the leading members assumed in the beginning that there was probable cause for the belief, and contented themselves with ransacking the (so-called) rebel archives, the Bureau of Military Justice and Circe's sty, for evidence to sustain it, or rather to give it color. Not only did they not inquire into the subject, but they absolutely refused to do so.

Witnesses of integrity and high social standing were offered the committee who would testify to a knowledge that several propositions had been made to Mr. Davis for the kidnapping and killing of President Lincoln and his Cabinet, and that he promptly and indignantly tabooed them. But the committee did not want and would not have any such witnesses. It is true they examined Campbell and Company, who acknowledged that they had been suborned for the Bureau of Military Justice, but they did so only because they had been placed in such a position that they could not, dared not refuse. Besides, the confession of these men that their original statements were fabricated for them by a Radical agent of the government did not tend to vindicate Mr. Davis. They made a grand flourish of trumpets over letters to Mr. Davis by three men named Barmore, Durham and Alston, proposing the assassination of leading characters of the North, because endorsements were found them referring them to the [so called] rebel Secretary of War, but they refused to receive any explanatory evidence on the subject. Young Harrison, private Secretary to Mr. Davis, who made on the letter of Alston the endorsement "respectfully referred, by direction of the President, to the Honorable Secretary of War," was prepared to testify that Mr. Davis never saw or heard of the letter until after the endorsement as made, and that he did not in any sense prove the proposition it contained; that he (Davis) was often flooded with letters, and that when they came to his (Harrison's) hands for perusal and examination, as they frequently did without being seen by the President, he, acting under general instructions, made endorsements on such as related to matters within the scope of other branches of the government, referring them, as by direction of the President, the heads of the appropriate departments; that he did this in the case of Alston's letter without its being seen by Mr. Davis at all, and that the same thing was done in the case of Barham's letter; but the committee, although satisfied of the fact that these endorsements could be explained in this manner, and knowing that they could not be received in a court of justice as evidence against Mr. Davis without having first shown that he knew and approved the contents of the letters, and directed the endorsement to be made, refused to examine Harrison; refused absolutely to inquire into the fact, lest they should be deprived of all ground or excuse for reporting that there was probable cause to believe Mr. Davis accessory to the assassination. It cannot be objected that Harrison was "a rebel," for the committee examined other "rebel" agents, one of whom, James A. Hayes, the majority report declares was 'in a degree an unwilling witness,' "still devoted to the cause of rebellion," but "a man of truth," than whom nothing more derogatory could be said of young Harrison.

But the Committee did not want witnesses who could throw light on the subject; they abhorred the truth. The most important paragraph in the majority report is an unmitigated, shameful lie—a lie culpable and transparent that the authors cannot escape from it.

The exposure of conspiracy to convict Davis by means of false witnesses, and that two of the witnesses confessed before the committee that they had been suborned by an agent of the government to swear falsely for the Bureau of Military Justice, forced Mr. Boutwell to admit in his report that several of the witnesses, on being brought before the committee, retracted entirely the statement made for the Judge Advocate General, and declared that their testimony, as given originally, was false in every particular. But the report continues (and here is the point) that they (the witnesses) failed to state inducements or considerations which seem to the committee a reasonable explanation of the course they had pursued, and the committee are not at this time able to say whether the original statements of these witnesses are true or false," leaving it open to conjecture, and in fact raising in some quarters the inference that the original statements of these persons, was the report declares, harmonize in every important particular with facts derived from other and other trustworthy sources, were true that the witnesses have since been bribed by the friends of Davis to retract. Why, if witnesses declared to the committee that they were promised and that they received sums of money for making the false affidavit for the Bureau of Military Justice, and yet the committee cannot see in such inducements or considerations" a reasonable explanation of the course they (the witnesses) had pursued." Campbell further declared that, instead of being in the "rebel" service, as he had finally sworn, he lived exclusively in York during the war, working at his trade, (tinning,) and he gave the names and address of persons for whom he had worked, and others who knew him well and saw him daily during that period. The committee promptly dispatched an agent with him to New York, took him in presence of the persons he named, when he was at once identified as the party he claimed to be before the committee, yet the majority of that sapient body not able to say whether his original statements are true or false."

That Campbell and Snevel were suborned, as they confessed before the committee, and were employed by ten others, and paid handsomely for their perfidy, the following correspondence which we procured with much difficulty, will establish beyond a doubt. The first letter is directed to "Sanford Conover, Esq., Washington."

WELDON, ST. ALBANS, Nov. 19, 1865.

MR. CONOVER:

Dear Sir—I have just parted with the party I thought to do to represent Lamar. He will go in the game and swear all that is wanted; places his price at a pretty high figure. It is $3,000, and says he won't sell his notes. You told me not to go above $1,500, but the Judge told me afterwards that if necessary I could go five hundred more. But even this is far below the mark. What am I to do? I have written the Judge how the matter stands, and I hope you will urge him to come to the terms. Dick is a good fellow, and we can depend on him without fear, and he has the faculty liars need most,—a mighty good memory. I hope to receive a message from you to-morrow, telling me to strike the bargain.—At any rate, let me know how to act as soon as possible.

Truly yours,
WILLIAM CAMPBELL.

NEW YORK, March 5, 1866.

MR. CONOVER:

Dear Sir—I have been trying to see you for several days, but hear that you are out of town. I shall leave this at station A., that you may get it as soon as you return. I am in great need of more money—my last investment did not pay, and I am dead broke, and so is Snevel.—The Judge told me when I last saw him to communicate with him only through you, and I don't like to write him; but I must have money in a few days. Get him to send me $500, for nothing less will be of any use to me. I wish I could get in bulk all I am to receive, and then I could get into safer business; but I suppose you are all afraid that if you should give me all in my hands at once, I should not be found when most wanted. I don't like to be suspected, but anything is better than being poor, so I will take what I can get; but of course not less than $500. Don't keep me waiting again for God's sake, for I shall hardly be able to raise cocktails and cigars till I hear from you.

Truly yours, WM. CAMPBELL.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Bureau Military Justice,
Washington, D. C., March 17, 1866.

MR. S. CONOVER:

Dear Sir—Since writing you and enclosing draft as requested, I have received a letter from Campbell to which I replied this morning, mentioning the funds remitted to you for himself and Mr. Snevel, and asking him to see you. He does not, however, know precisely where to find you, and I presume you have not his address, which is the Whitney House, corner of Twelfth street and Broadway. I hope you will place the funds in his hands with the least possible delay, as he seems to be greatly in need. Very respectfully, your obedient servant, J. HOLT,
Judge Advocate General.

The following letter is directed to "Sanford Conover, Esq., Post-Office, station F, New York city."

ASTOR HOUSE, April 17, 1865.

DEAR CONOVER—I came in last evening, and have been all day endeavoring to find you.—That villain Campbell has divulged the whole arrangement to Mr. Davis's friends, and will, if possible, be pushed before the committe. I have been sent on to assist you in getting him sweet again, so that he will stand by his story, or else keep out of the way. It must be done at any cost. I am prepared with the needful.—Old 279 and No. 8 were at headquarters the day before yesterday, and are curious. We shall be well rewarded if we save their bacon.—It must be done. Call the moment you receive this. I shall wait till you come, for I can do nothing without you. I have also written to your old address. As ever, yours, M.

THE MEMPHIS Avalanche draws the following striking portrait of an erewhile Secessionist, turned ultra-Radical, who has just been elected to the Legislature of Arkansas:

"Before the war this creature was as full of fight as a Dutchman is of carrots and cabbages. He was as belligerent as a hedge-hog. Whenever the name of Yankee was mentioned in his presence, he clenched his fist and grated his teeth. He couldn't smoke a cigar, as there was danger of his igniting and going off in spontaneous combustion. He fed upon vinegar and gunpowder. Yankee blood he wanted and nothing but Yankee blood would satisfy his capacious maw. He swelled himself up into another JACK-THE-GIANT-KILLER, and he seemed to think

"When he drank the rivers unto him flowed,
When he eat the mountains lessening growed,
When he sneezed whirlwinds round did roll,
And when he moved the earth quaked from pole to pole."

With such a monster on the side of secession, no one feared defeat. When the war was inaugurated, everybody expected the boom of the cannon would be FITZPATRICK'S constant lullaby. But after advocating secession and inducing his friends and neighbors to enlist in the struggle, his courage oozed out with the slime upon his lying tongue, and instead of shouldering a musket he tucked his tail between his legs, and like a cowardly cur slunk away. Having abandoned his friends and his principles, he soon turned up in the capacity of that most despicable of all pimps, a smuggler or blockade-runner. He was captured on one occasion, by the gallant boys in grey, his cotton burned and his worthless life spared through the earnest intercession of a prominent citizen of Cross county. He deserted his friends, turned traitor to his principles, but what cared he since his apostacy was filling his breeches pocket. During the war he amassed a large fortune, and a few weeks since he announced himself a candidate for the Legislature, and with shame and humiliation we have to announce he has been elected. This result is inexplicable."

Interesting from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17, P. M.

Thad. Stevens has been unanimously nominated for re-election to Congress by the Radical Convention at Lancaster, Penn.

It is probable that all the members of the Cabinet, excepting Harlan and Stanton, General Grant and Admiral Farragut, will accompany the President on his trip to Chicago.

It is reported, on good authority, that Gen. Howard, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, intends issuing an order, within a few days, suspending the distribution of government rations to the destitute of the South,—thus throwing the burden of supporting the indigent of both races on the local authorities.

The President and the Great Convention—Emphatic Utterances.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18, M.

The President, in an interview with the New Hampshire delegation, said, in reference to the great Convention and his future policy:

We have now a policy and principles recognized and laid down by the most intelligent, able and patriotic body of men convened since the days of the Declaration of Independence. A recognition of this policy and principles WOULD BE REQUIRED OF THOSE WHO RECEIVE OFFICE AND PATRONAGE FROM THE GOVERNMENT.

It was a duty the Administration owed to itself, that strength and power should be given to those who maintain the principles declared by that great body of national men who met at Philadelphia!"

SOMETHING NEW
UNDER THE SUN.
A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder. I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Genrick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

MAGGIEL'S CHILLS AND FEVER PILLS!
Maggiel's Fever and Ague Pills!
MAGGIEL'S FEVER AND AGUE PILLS!!

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of

CHILLS, FEVER AND AGUE

are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of

One Pill Three Times A Day,

before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

if he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pill is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St., New York.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a nefarious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

AYER'S AGUE CURE, FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

BATTLE'S DIGEST.

The Digest of all the reported law cases in North Carolina, from the earliest period to the present year, is now nearly ready for the binder. It will consist of about 1200 pages, including the table of cases, &c.—The book has been so arranged that it can be bound in one volume, or in two, according to the preference of the purchaser.

The cost of publication has been greater than was expected, in consequence of the book being larger, and it is ascertained that the author cannot afford to charge less than $15 for the volume or volumes of the Law, and $10 for the Equity volume to be paid on or before the delivery of the volumes respectively. The work, though containing much more matter, will cost but little more in currency, than was formerly charged in gold or its equivalent for the aggregate of Iredell's and Jones's Digests.

When a purchaser wants an interleaved copy, he will so state in his order for the work. There will be an additional price of one dollar for such copy.

We have consented to act as agents for Judge Battle in the sale of the Digest, and now solicit immediate orders, accompanied with directions as to how the book shall be bound, &c.

The printing of the Equity volume will be commenced without delay.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Book-keeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

BUCKEYE SULKY PLOW.

Being impressed with the necessity, and importance of economy in farming, I am happy to have it in my power to furnish to farmers at manufacturers prices the BUCKEYE COTTON & CORN CULTIVATOR OR SULKEY PLOW.

It is certainly the greatest improvement of the age in agricultural implements.

It will, with two horses and one hand, cultivate as much land, and do it as well, as four horses and four hands in the usual way; and the plower can either walk or ride at pleasure; which enables old or decripped men, who cannot follow the common plow to execute the work as well as the most robust.

It is manufactured by R. Sinclair & Co., Baltimore, at $70, and is the cheapest plow in use, because of the great saving in hands, teams and provisions. For further information upon the subject, address.

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va. Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON, Superintendent Hillsborough Military Academy, Hillsborough N. C.
